GREENWOOD

Richardson Hollow

School was pleasantly closed Friday for the holiday vacation by having a Christmas tree in the evening.

The schoolroom was prettily decorated with boughs, Christmas mottoes, bells and the Christmas colors of red and green.

Thirty-three of the parents and neighbors were present. A decorated and well-lit tree was the central point of interest and was much enjoyed by all.

The program was presented in a pleasing manner:

The Commercial Club held its fourth meeting of the year on December 15. The meeting was called to order and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. It was voted that the next meeting be held the week after returning from the Xmas holidays and the weather permitting, some winter sport would be enjoyed. The Christmas program followed and the first was a short play, "Aunt Jane Visits School" in which Miss Velma Shaw played the part of Aunt Jane, and teacher with Miss Ruth Thayer. A very pretty tree was arranged in one corner of the room and Santa Claus presented to each member of the class a present on which a verse appeared and was read by each as they received their gifts. The big surprise of the evening came when the Club very thoughtfully presented to Miss Higgins, the commercial teacher, very beautiful turtle bracelet and shoulder pin of sterling silver. The Club enjoyed having with them little Miss Olive Edwards, who also enjoyed receiving gifts from Santa Claus and showed her appreciation by speaking a piece. After the program the Club voted to turn the tree over to the girls on Friday before school closes and to give the birds a feast for Christmas by tying on it all kinds of food for them to eat. The meeting adjourned after a very enjoyable evening.

A meeting of the Latin Club and the Home Economics Class was held in the assembly hall, Dec. 16. The meeting was called to order by the president. The Latin Club presented a play, "The Roman Holiday" and the Home Economics Class presented a play, "The Roman Holiday".

The eighth grade held a class meeting Monday, December 14. Harold Nevers and Preston Cummings were chosen to get the tree. Lucinda Ripley and Greta Merrill were chosen to decorate it.

The seventh and eighth grades had an entertainment, Friday afternoon. After the entertainment the grades had their trees separately.
